

2009-2010 SEASON

Accomplishments

Pacific Chorale

John Alexander, Artistic Director

Recordings

Shenandoah (2008, Gothic) – American folk songs performed by the John Alexander Singers • Conducted by John Alexander

Christmas Time is Here (2005, Gothic) – with members of Pacific Symphony • Conducted by John Alexander

Pacific Symphony's An American Requiem, Richard Danielpour (2002, Reference) • Conducted by Carl St.Clair

Sweet Harmony (2001) – A cappella works performed by the John Alexander Singers, with guest instrumental soloists • Conducted by John Alexander

Nocturne (2000) – A cappella works by Samuel Barber, Eric Whitacre, Adolphus Hailstork and John Alexander • Conducted by John Alexander

Musica (1997) – American a cappella works • Conducted by John Alexander

Pacific Symphony's Fire, Water, Paper: A Vietnam Oratorio, Elliot Goldenthal (1996, Sony Classical) • Conducted by Carl St.Clair

Songs of Eternity by James F. Hopkins and Voices by Stephen Paulus (1995, Albany), with Pacific Symphony • Conducted by John Alexander

Sing Noël (1992), with Pacific Chorale Children's Chorus and Pacific Brass Ensemble • Conducted by John Alexander

Awards

ASCAP Chorus America – 2005
Alice Parker Award for Adventurous Programming

Orange County Department of Education – 2002
Outstanding Contributions to Education Award

Arts Orange County – 2001
Outstanding Arts Organization, Music

Chorus America – 1997
Educational Outreach Award
(Inaugural national award)

Chorus America – 1993
Margaret Hillis Achievement Award for Choral Excellence
(An organization may receive this national award only once.)

Tour Highlights

Pacific Chorale has produced eight tours in its 40-year history, including these highlights:

France & Italy – 2008

Concerts in Aix-en-Provence, Flayosc, Levanto and Lecco

Spain – 2003

Concerts in Madrid, Cordoba, Grenada, Nerja, Ronda and Sevilla

South America – 1998

Performances with South American national and regional orchestras in Argentina, Uruguay and Brazil

China – 1993

Performances with Chinese national and regional orchestras in Hong Kong, Shanghai, Guangzhou and Beijing

Estonia – 1991

Performances throughout the then newly-liberated country