Position Description

Pacific Chorale Academy is a unique after-school choir program which combines music education and socio-emotional learning, offered free to low-income students in grades 2-6. Resident Accompanists lead weekly rehearsals which focus on social connection, musical skills, and fun. PC Academy received a national award from Chorus America for its impact in neighborhoods that have limited access to arts enrichment opportunities.

Each 10-week residency uses a set of pre-developed lesson plans and recommended repertoire designed to teach healthy, age-appropriate vocal technique, musicianship skill, and cultural context. The program takes place after school at each site, and students join the program voluntarily.

The Accompanist is part of a two-person team with a Teaching Artist at each site.
